by Cary Lane

Poise those pencils pals cause it's time for a dose of dish to dazzle ya . . .

YA GOTTA BELIEVE . . . When you want the facts you gotta rely on little Miss L and the facts are that Barry is not producing an album for a) Bette Midler, b) Connie Francis, c) Sophie Tucker, d) all of the above. Correct answer: D

JUST IN CASE . . . Though the news splashed worldwide you might have missed that Barrry's "Live in Britain" album entered the charts at Number One . . . can't wait to see where it climbs next week.

PRESS THE PAUSE . . . Cause it looks like "Foster Father" is probably on hold til Barry's plans to tour and record are finalized.

BITTEN TONGUES ABOUND . . . Throughout the hallways of ARISTA RECORDS where everyone managed to keep secret the release of Barry's surprise single "Oh Julie!"

ON THE RADIO . . . Barry was heard as the first guest to be interviewed live by his friends around the country who phoned in toll-free to the CBS Studio in Hollywood. So many in fact, that the phone company reported blown circuits throughout the Los Angeles Area.

GIFTS AND GOODIES . . . From BMIFCer's in Australia were delivered via the Detroit Beagel-Bagels who entrusted their cache with Radio DJ Dave Prince.

CROSS YOUR FINGERS . . . But plans are afoot to work out special ticket considerations for BMIFCer's on the upcoming tour.

WHO WOULDA THUNK . . . that Barry would want to perform again at the Tahoe, Vegas, and Atlantic City Casinos. Waell . . . he does. Now if the Entertainment Directors can just sharpen their pencils and adjust their schedules.

BACKSTAGE . . . Barry was spotted welcoming Elton John to Los Angeles at Elton's Hollywood Bowl opening night.

STAR STUDDED . . . Barry black tied it and welcomed in Frank Sinatra's re-opening of the Universal Ampitheatre in Universal City.

AND SPEAKING OF STARS . . . Let's hope you keep your eyes on a star and your heart in your dreams. From the land of dreams . . . this is Cary Lane saying Bye-bye for now.

Barry Manilow

Hi Gang –

Just a short note to thank all of you for your Birthday cards and presents. (You really shouldn't). And to those of you who celebrated my birthday with parties and get-togethers and even more elaborate festivities, I'm very flattered. I, myself, tried to ignore the whole thing - turning thirty can be very traumatic. (Do I hear laughing I hear?).

Also, thanks for your opinions on what my first movie should be. The majority voted for a musical-comedy-drama-thriller-western. I'm hard at work on the script now- it's about this singing cowboy that falls in love with a great white Shark that tells jokes. You're gonna love it.

Most of all, I'd like to thank everyone who sent me the "Jersey"-photos. I think I've got a photo of every single place I wore a jersey. Thanks a lot. There're great memories.

Gotta go – Just one more thing. I love reading your local newsletters. They make me laugh, they're touching, and most of all, they let me know you care. Keep 'em coming!

See ya' in the fall-

love,

Barry

tour talk

Are you ready? Are you really ready? Well, if you are, here goes. Cause it seems like there's talk of tours everywhere and, for a change, YOU just might be the first to know...or at least hear...or at least be aware that there's talk. BECAUSE ...these are still just possibles ...that means no deals have been signed...no facilities booked...no firm schedules prepared. It does mean, however, that you can start contacting your local arena/theatre for tickets, keep your eye open for ads, and start to plan accordingly. Once the firm schedules have been set, however, we'll be sure to let you know.

IN OCTOBER & NOVEMBER... Look for Barry in major arenas around the country. That usually means facilities with more than 15,000 seats. And, most likely, he'll be in those cities that he hasn't seen in four or five years.

DECEMBER...Probably a month off and a chance to rest up.

JANUARY & FEBRUARY... Barry hopes to continue the Fall Tour throughout the United States. Once again, in those cities he hasn't seen in four or five years.

MARCH...Time to pack it up and (finally) head for Japan. Enroute there's talk of a week in HAWAII.

APRIL...Heading South, Barry hopes to see, at last, the sights of Sydney via several possible appearances in Australia.

MAY...The Call of the Casinos will lure Barry back to Tahoe, Vegas, Atlantic City, Indiana, and Florida.

JUNE...Deep and restful sleep, sleep, sleep.

Q & A's

by Gary Adams

WHAT WAS THE WINNING CAPTION FOR BARRY'S PINBALL PICTURE? Arlene Mantek, Union, New Jersey
It was great. Unfortunately, the censor didn't agree and it will never appear in print.

WHY ISN'T "HERE WE GO AGAIN" ON ANY OF BARRY'S ALBUMS? Susan Peterson, Brooklyn, New York
Too bad for us, but Barry decided to use the song only as an opening number, and even then, only at some of his concerts.

WHO SELECTS THE CHOIR TO BACK-UP FOR BARRY FOR "ONE VOICE"? Marilee Behm, Reading, Pennsylvania
Selection of the choir is usually left up to representatives of UNICEF. Barry's production manager or stage director will then usually audition the final selection prior to the concert.

WILL BARRY BE IN A TELEVISION MOVIE TITLED "FOSTER FATHER"? Gayle Picaizen, Montreal, Quebec, Canada
Although the first script has been completed, the last we heard was that the project was on hold.

ARE THERE ANY GIRLS ON BARRY'S ROAD CREW? Kathleen Brown, Wantogh, New York
Yes, there are. Send your resume and application to Gary Speakman in care of our office.

WHEN AND WHERE WAS THE PICTURE OF BARRY IN SHORTS TAKEN? IT WAS AT THE BACK OF THE 1981 PROGRAM. Anne Imbs, Indianhead Park, Illinois
On board the deck of the "Principia", John Davidson's 96 foot yacht that Barry borrowed for a few days off.

HOW CAN I GET A PRINT OF THE PICTURE OF BARRY IN SHORTS? IT WAS AT THE BACK OF THE 1981 PROGRAM. Bobbie Katz, Hamilton High, California
You can't.

DOES BARRY STILL WEAR ADIDAS? Carolyn Lyng, Phoenixville, Pennsylvania
Yes . . . although he has purchased a new pair since the Second ABC SPECIAL.

HOW MANY TIMES DID IT REALLY TAKE BARRY TO RECORD THE WHISTLE ON "CAN'T SMILE . . ." Shelli Hoak, La Mesa, California
Enough that the sound engineer has asked to leave the room.

BMIFC

DOES BARRY USE THE SAME PIANO AT ALL THE CONCERTS AND DOES HE CARRY SPARES? Debbie Mitchell, Eugene, Oregon
Yes . . . and in addition, he retains a full-time piano tuner/keyboard technician on the road crew to help make sure that spares are not needed. P.S. . . the piano comes apart and is shipped in its customized individual road case.

ONCE AND FOR ALL, IS IT 1944, 45, 46, 47, OR WHAT? Pat Moore, Fort Benning, Georgia
Barry was born in 1946.

IS K-TEL VIOLATING COPYRIGHT LAW BY DISTRIBUTING THE "MANILOW MAGIC" ALBUM? Norma Zamora, Chicago, Illinois
Nope. Barry gave his OK for the album to be released.

WHY IS IT THAT BARRY DOESN'T WANT TO SEE ANYONE BEFORE HIS CONCERTS? Samantha Ingle, Smyrna, Georgia
At last, the chance to answer the most asked question of the year. First off, the rumour is wrong. The correct answer is that Barry doesn't like to have visitors backstage before the concert. Rather than entertain guests, he spends the time working with his crew, the lighting director, sound technicians, etc., to make certain that his performance is as good as possible. P.S. Another favorite rumor is that Barry covers all the backstage mirrors and clocks. Wrong again.

did you know?

- That Judith Armstrong (Watauga, Texas) won $50.00 from KVIL (Dallas) after requesting "Somewhere In The Night?" P.S. . . . They played it.
- That while waiting for a taxi at 2 am after Barry's concert in Ingilston . . . Louisa Moreno (Argyll, Scotland) and four other friends were startled to be greeted by none other than Barry and friends as they departed the concert hall?
- That Kathy Hild (Millrift, Pennsylvania) wonders if she is the only PostMaster in the BMIFC?
- That Susan Borlant (Leeds, England) won a personally autographed copy of Barry's latest album at her H.M.V. Record Shop? P.S. . . . It was the first time she's ever won . . . anything.
- That the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce has appointed Jeannie Bitters (Downey, California) as official star cleaner for Barry's Hollywood Boulevard Star? Once a month you spot Jeannie hard at work.
- That if you, or a friend, has an interesting tidbit for "DID YOU KNOW" you should send it to Alicia Galay at the BMIFC?

MANCHESTER REPORTS

(From The Weekly News, London, England)

"The Weekly News articles about Barry were especially interesting to me as they brought some very happy memories of his January concert in London. My husband and I travelled to London to see his concert at the Royal Albert Hall. It was a tremendous evening and almost as soon as we arrived home I went into labour with the baby I was expecting. Our son arrived a couple of hours after I went into the hospital — three weeks early. The hospital staff were unanimous in saying that we should put in "Barry" in his name so we called him David Patrick Barry Wilson as a reminder of the end of a lovely evening out to see Barry Manilow." (Mrs. L. Wilson, Enfield, Middlesex, England)

by David Taylor

So I took a survey. After all, I had just received several letters complaining about my column. Maybe there were more. "Too soppy," they cried. "Syrupy and sacharine," declared the trio. Who knows? Maybe they had a point. To me they just sounded like more of the critics that review Barry's concerts. Don't get me wrong, I'm not comparing myself to Barry. I'm just comparing my critics. All three of them.

So anyway, I took a survey. I asked everyone in the office to pour through their stacks of letters and note any comments about "BackStage"...good or bad.

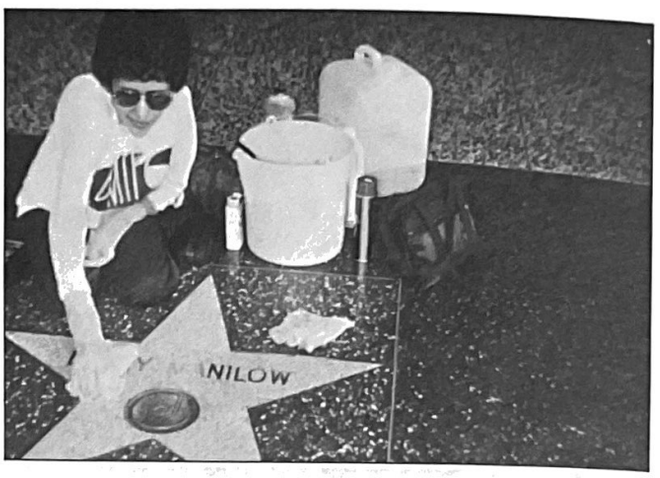
So they poured. I waited. They poured. Off through stacks of Christmas cards, Birthday cards, get well cards, letters of thanks about Barry's tour, concern about his health, appreciation for his music. Letters from men and women. Youngsters and oldsters. And just about everyone in between. Here and there they spotted a letter with my name in it and a comment about the column.

Missing were the comments about soppiness and syrup. Instead I was flooded with notes expressing similar concerns and wonderment. Expressions of gratitude from a lady in a wheelchair. Tears from a son who shared his mothers grief at the loss of his dad and my story about Atlantic City. Or the divorced dad who could relate to my story about a little girl listening to "Sunday Father" with her Sunday Father. And a letter from three kids who shared my amazement at the candles glowing for the first time at Blossom Music Center.

Maybe I had missed something. I went back and re-read all my columns. Surprise hit me in the face. They were soppy. They were syrupy and sacharine. And they were right. Because each described exactly how I felt...and how the people around me felt...and how so many of Barry's friends who write me letters felt.

So to my three critics..."Go ahead!" Call my articles whatever you want. I don't care. Because I, like thousands and thousands of Barry's fans feel perfectly entitled to shed a tear, express my emotions, voice my concern, let down my defenses, and call it as I see it.

This is David Taylor. Wrapped up in all my emotions...and willing to share them all with you. For now...I think that's enough.



WISHY WASHY...Jeannie Bitters and Valerie Mendoza, appointed by the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce to maintain Barry's STAR on Hollywood Boulevard.

UNTITLED

by Heather Sellors
Bridgend Mid Glam,
South Wales

How can I begin to tell you,
Would you ever understand?
How much you have affected
someone you've never met.
I sat among the millions tonight and listened to your songs.
You took my heart, my life, my love
and made me feel as one.

You never noticed me,
but I intent saw you
I watched your face, the love in your eyes
I'm sure you felt it too.
As slowly we grew closer
a part of each others' lives,
friends for all eternity
though separate by many miles.

I'm just one of many touched by your great gift
but you are the one unique who's taught us how to live.
By listening to your music
you've helped us to express each pain we've all encountered and the feeling of success.

So now at last I've told you
Did you really understand?
How deeply I adore you
From . . . a dedicated fan.

BARRY MANILOW

by Susan Griffiths
Elisabeth Downs, South Australia

I love you Barry Manilow
Like winter loves the sun
Though you may never know my name
You'll always be the one

Though we may never meet
May God keep you from all danger
I love you Barry Manilow
You'll never be a stranger

The long dark nights when I'm alone
I think that you see me
And wave and smile and walk right up
But no, it's just a dream

Yet hope, like love, will never die
So cupid draw your bow
And shoot the arrow of my love
To Barry Manilow

THANK YOU BARRY

by Jeanette Olson
Sac City, Iowa

For the beauty you bring
Each time that you sing

For your talent you share
With us everywhere

For the joy you impart
When you touch each heart

While embracing those keys
With such loving ease

So thank you, and thank you
Oh, and thank you again

May your music live always
And your song never end

GENTLE MAN OF MUSIC

by Claire Dunigan
Louisville, Kentucky

Gentle man of music
Sing your song for me
Tell me of your hopes and dreams
And everything you see

Let me feel your heart beat
When you sing a tender song
Let me share your joy
When our voices sing along

Help me when the day is dark
To see the sun shining through
Teach me when I want to quit
What only one voice can do

Soothe me with your tender voice
Enchant me with your smile
Play with me and make me laugh
If only for a little while

Make the tears flow freely
When I hear the beauty in your tune
Open my heart and mind to music
And the power that comes from you

Let me smile and shed a tear
When I hear that special song
Let me stand tall and proud
For I had it all along

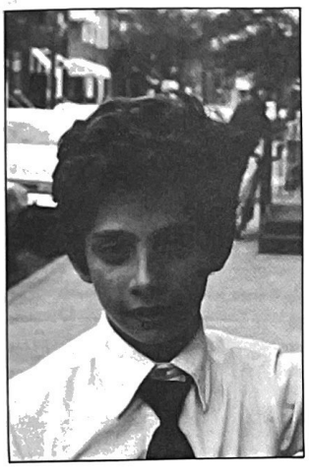
Make me dance through every rain cloud
Make me climb to reach the stars
Help me gain some understanding
Of my own and others' scars

You will always be my friend
With a cherished place in my soul
I will always, always sing with you
As, together, our lives unfold

Gentle man of music
sing your song for me
Tell me of my hopes and dreams
And everything you see.

THE GREAT FACE

We looked, and we looked, and then we looked again. We settled on one, fought over another, and threw up our hands in frustration when we realized that in spite of thousands of entries we had yet to find anyone who really looked like Barry. Along the way we spotted a lot of pianos that looked like Barry's, and a lot of shirts that looked like Barry's...just no face that looked like Barry's. Sure, there were a few that were close. And yes, Joe Montana looks sort of like Barry...as long as he's wearing the right hat, under the right light, and facing the right way.



And then...out of nowhere... up popped Michael. Granted, he doesn't look like Barry today. But he sure looks like Barry when Barry was 12...Michael is 12. Even Barry agrees that he could have been his twin. In case you're in doubt, track down a copy of the Manilow interview in Ladies Home Journal from about three years ago. Included is a shot of Barry as a kid.

Michael, by the way, is Michael Ganzano of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Michael is the mascot of the New Jersey Barry Manilow Club and was submitted by Roseann Giannone of Philadelphia.

MADMAN RIDES AGAIN

So certain that a WESTERN would be your first choice for Barry's first movie MadMan went ahead with a carful of cowboy hats. Way to go MadMan. A Brooklyn Cowboy? Oh well. Except for three fans of the rodeo, the majority of you indicated that Barry should pursue a romantic comedy. Sorry, MadMan. Good luck with the hats.

HOT TIP

Officers of local Barry Manilow Fan Clubs throughout the United States were startled to receive advance word from the BMIFC that Barry's surprise single "Oh Julie" was on its way to radio stations in the U.S. Though it was still too early to reveal the title, at least we were able to get the word out before the newspapers and magazines.

Well Gang,

Thus endeth another chapter. Guess it's time to go. Looking back over the archives the other day, I realized that this is issue Number 10 of the Revised BMIFC BarryGram. Guess maybe that we should have printed it in silver?

Anyway, that all amounts to a lot of letters, a lot of poems, and most of all a lot of support from all of you. Our goal with the B'Gram has always been to try and answer your questions, give you accurate information, and, most of all, bring you a little closer to Barry. As we put this issue to bed (as they say in the newspaper business) we hope that we have come a little closer to achieving that goal. Even if only in a small way . . . even if only to show you that we care about you and your interests.

You all mean very much to me and my crew of crazies . . . I hope that our BarryGrams succeed in conveying our feelings.

Luv Ya

Kate Naughton

Hi Friends . . .

I know, you thought we had forgotten about you. Seems like it's been quite some time since last we wrote. In fact, it has been quite some time. Anyway, we're back. and boy, do we have news.

First off, Adam had his second birthday, whoops!! wrong letter. To begin again, first off there's very serious talk about a new tour . . . a new album . . . and Barry's surprise single. Inside, you'll find all the details.

Which leads us to our second big news . . . and to all of us much more important . . . Barry is fully rested, totally healthy, and obviously raring to go.

Much credit is deserved by those of you who contributed your cards and letters, and chicken soup. Now if we can just figure out what to do with all those soggy cards . . .

And all that reminds me one more time about just how caring and concerned you all truly are. The letters that Barry received about his bout with pneumonia could fill a railroad car. You never cease to amaze me.

Anyway, we're back . . . and can't wait to tell you more.
